4. Student Profile:

Most of the students admitted here are from eastern UP and western Bihar. They come mostly from socially and economically middle and poor classes. However, they often exhibit an appreciable performance.

5. Changes in Courses:

The syllabus of Ancient History was revised in 2020.

6. Success rate and drop-out rate:

The department has showed a good trend in success rate (70-90%) of students. The drop-out rate is almost negligible.

7. Learning Resources of the department:

There is a central library in the institution that has sufficient number of books on different aspects of Ancient History.

8. Modern teaching methods:

We mostly practice classroom teaching.

9. Academic and personal Counseling: The staff members take keen interest in providing academic counseling to our students. We keep them updated regarding various avenues available to them after graduation.

10. Faculty development programmes: All the faculties have attended the required number of Orientation and Refresher courses.

11. Participation in academic activities:

Teaching- All the faculty members are regularly involved in teaching.

Research- All the three faculties are involved in research work.

Other Academic Activities-

Our faculty members are routinely involved in other college activities, like proctorship, admission, examination, evaluation, etc.

12. Collaboration with other departments and institutions: None

13. Priority Areas of Research – Social and Economic History

14. Placement record of Students- We have a good record placement of students in different fields.

15. Plan of action of the department for the next five years:

We plan to establish a departmental library, a museum and a seminar room.
